Bruce Cook is the Senior Asset Manager at Finance Fund, a statewide nonprofit community development entity that moves public and private capital into low-income communities to improve the quality of life for people.

Bruce is responsible for financial performance analysis, monitoring trends, performing legal review and research and identifying and mitigating credit risk.

He reviews and interprets financial statements for small businesses, and maintains and monitors Finance Fund's loan portfolios. As Finance Fund increases the size of its Small Business Administration loan portfolio, Bruce will monitor and maintain these new loans.

Bruce has over 15 years of experience in credit analysis, underwriting and compliance. Prior to joining Finance Fund, Bruce worked in underwriting and credit at Fifth Third Bancorp, Great Lakes Bankers Bank, and JPMorgan Chase Bank.

He also worked in compliance as a Senior Documentation Specialist at Bank One, NA and as a Foreclosure Specialist at Huntington Bank. Before entering the financial services sector, Bruce was a real estate/corporate paralegal, working for law firms and title companies, and also operated his own paralegal services company.
