Matt Frank is the Chief Financial Officer at Finance Fund, a statewide nonprofit community development entity that moves public and private capital into low-income communities to improve the quality of life for people.

Matt brings more than 17 years of experience in public accounting serving nonprofit, manufacturing, distribution, service, restaurant, lending, and health care organizations. Additionally, he has experience in compliance work, internal control reporting, due diligence and general business consulting.

He oversees operation of fiscal and program teams and manages the general financial condition of the corporation. He has oversight of the corporate budget including analysis of business strategies, accounting and reporting, asset and risk management, federal and state tax compliance, loan portfolio management and investor relations.

His responsibilities include providing timely and accurate financial statements, ongoing cash flow projections and enhancing internal control, as well as designing and maintaining financial reporting structures.

Matt earned a bachelor of science degree in business administration from The Ohio State University Fisher College of Business. He is a certified public accountant (CPA).
