Healthy Food for a Healthier Ohio

Fruit and vegetable intake can increase up to 32% with each additional supermarket in a community.

Potential health care savings by 2020 if Ohio’s BMI is reduced by 5%.

People with access to supermarkets and grocery stores are more likely to maintain a healthy weight.

32%

$9.628 Billion

31%

2 Million

10th highest infant mortality rate.

of children ages 10-17 are overweight.

Ohioans live in lower-income communities underserved by supermarkets.

6th worst state for supermarket access.

of children are food insecure.

26.5%