Kelly Cook is the Credit Officer at Finance Fund, a statewide nonprofit community development entity that moves public and private capital into low-income communities to improve the quality of life for people.

Kelly has more than 15 years of experience in the banking industry including small business and middle market underwriting, construction lending and monitoring, portfolio management, servicing and liquidation. She is a member of the National Association of Government Guaranteed Lenders (NAGGL) and serves on the Small Lender West committee.

She is a US Small Business Administration (SBA) subject matter expert with expertise in lending, origination, analysis, servicing and liquidation. Kelly is responsible for the financial analysis and deployment of multiple lending programs to small businesses throughout Ohio.

Her industry expertise is in Government Guaranteed Business Lending such as SBA, USDA and State of Ohio loan programs. Prior to joining Finance Fund in 2014, she held the position of an SBA Credit Delivery Leader at an SBA nationally recognized financial institution. The bank achieved the #1 SBA Lender nationally ranked in volume and the #3 SBA Lender nationally ranked in dollars. Her knowledge and experience revolving around SBA loan origination and eligibility approval process reduced the number of SBA guaranty repair and denials.

Kelly is a graduate of Concord University where she received her Bachelor of Science in Tourism Industry Management.
